The security situation in eastern Ukraine remains volatile with frequent clashes across the front line, where humanitarian needs persist. Civilians fall victim to the conflict, with frequent damage to housing and civilian infrastructure such as water supply and electricity systems as well as schools and health facilities.

The annual conference of ECHO's humanitarian aid partners took place on 30 November and 1 December 2017 in Brussels. As in previous years, this has been an important opportunity for ECHO to discuss policy and operational issues of common interest with its partners in delivering humanitarian aid around the world.
