The other important thing is, of course, the law of undulation. Lewis is telling us that it is natural for humans to go through ups and downs. In fact, Lewis suggests that it's necessary for us to approach the constancy which we will fully participate in when we're outside of time. Understanding the law of undulation is a tremendous advantage for us. Every rise in joy does not mean we've ...

(3) On the basis of their scrupulous research they make up theories, like the law of Undulation (37), which allows them to foresee human behaviour in certain situations. One 'patient', as the human prey is called, is 'taken care of' by at least two tempters who are at their posts all the time. Surprisingly, Milton's Satan has exactly the same methods. However, they are more literal. Eve has ...
